Dear Mr. Gatewood:

I am most pleased to extend warm congratulations on your selection by the U.S. Small Business Administration to receive the District Director's Award. This is deserved recognition of your business leadership and acknowledges your commitment to civic excellence and the greater small business community. Your success provides an important foundation for other small business owners to gain valuable insight in planning their own progress and growth.

Vibrant and innovative small businesses are a critical component to Maryland's quality of life, and it is a distinct pleasure for me to recognize your own contributions and talent. I commend you again on this important award and wish you continued success and progress.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
